

MYC Volunteers at Elderly First Night

On December 27, 2007 the Mayor's Youth Council joined volunteers from across the city to help out during the Senior First Night Celebration. MYC members served food and danced the afternoon away to celebrate the new year. It was a great time for all as generations came together for good food and fun.

